Invitation to the UWS Yarramundi Lecture

‘WANDJINA’ Crystal Oobagooma (Mowanjum) © Karalundi (WA) Age 17, Gallery Amichi Invitation to the Annual
UWS Yarramundi Lecture

Professor Janice Reid AM
Vice-Chancellor, University of Western Sydney

Warmly invites you to join the University in celebrating NAIDOC week by attending the 2011 Yarramundi Lecture

to be delivered by

Leah Armstrong, Chief Executive Officer, Reconciliation Australia

Thursday 7 July 2011, 3.30pm to 4.30pm

The Margot Hardy Gallery, Building 23, University of Western Sydney, Bankstown Campus, Corner of Horsley Road and Bullecourt Avenue (entrance is via Bullecourt Avenue), Milperra (parking will be available in P1).

UWS is also pleased to present the exhibition
Big Ones, Little Ones – Thoughts, Feelings, Imagination a unique visual arts program by Trish Amichi which brings together Australian Indigenous artists and children from 27 remote and marginalised communities in 15 countries around the world, including 13 schools in remote, regional and urban Australia.

Please visit www.uws.edu.au/yarramundi2011 to register your attendance by Friday 1 July 2011.

Visit www.uws.edu.au/interactivemaps for directions to the venue.

If you have any queries, please contact the UWS Office of Public Affairs on 9678 7883.